1908-015 Chancery Causes: Cora Carter vs. Oliver Carter
Lee Co.

Roop, Dixon, Bailey

CA - Divorce

To the Hon. H. A. W. Skeen, Judge of the Circuit Court for Lee County, Virginia.

Humbly complaining, your complainant, Cora Carter, would respectfully represent and show unto your Honor that she on the _____ day of _____ 1900, was married to one, Oliver Carter. Her maiden name being Cora Roop. That they lived together as husband and wife for a short time. That during that time, she was to him a loving, dutiful and obedient wife, he on the contrary, he was abusive, and failed to support and maintain your complainant.

Your complainant alleges that she is a resident of Lee County, and has been for more than Twelve months, before the institution of this suit. In fact, has lived in Lee County, Va. all her life, having been born and raised within two miles of Jonesville.

Your complainant alleges that her said husband, Oliver Carter, more than Three years ago, willfully deserted and abandoned your complainant, left the State, and now resides in New Mexico or Indiana, and refuses to return and live with your complainant. Said willful desertion and abandonment has continued for more than Three years, before the bringing of this suit.

Your complainant further alleges that she and her said husband last lived and cohabited together in this, Lee County, State of Virginia.

Your complainant alleges that she is entitled to a divorce avinculo matrimonii.

In tender consideration thereof, and being without remedy, save in a Court of equity. The prayer of your complainand is; that the said Oliver Carter, be made a party defendant to this bill, and answer the same, but not on oath, that being waived.

That an order of publication be made, posted and published against the defendant, who is a non resident; that the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted and now existing between your complainant and the said defendant, be dissolved; and your complainant be granted an absolute divorce. And your complainant prays for all other and further relief generally, that the nature of her case may require, or to equity will seem meet, and she will ever pray etc.

The deposition of H.P.Dixon and Charles B. Bailey, taken taken before me, Geo. P. Cridlin, Commissioner in Chancery for the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, at the law office of M.G.Ely, in the town of Jonesville, Va., to be read as evidence in behalf of the plaintiff in a certain suit in Chancery now depending in the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia, in which Cora Carter is plaintiff and Oliver Carter is defendant.

Present M. G. Ely attorney for plaintiff.

H. P. Dixon a witnese of lawful age being duly sworn deposes as follows:

Q.1.-- Please state your age, residence and occupation, and whether or not you are acquainted with the parties to this suit.

A.-- I am 62 years, reside near Jonesville, occupation Miller, I am acquainted with the parties to this suit, have known them at least five years.

Q.2.-- Please state where said parties now reside if you know.

A.-- Cora Carter lives in Lee County, and has for more than a year before the bringing of this suit. Oliver Carter left his wife something like four years ago and I have been informd that he lives in some of the western states. I do not know of any cause he had for leaveing his wife. He said when he left after his wife had had one child, that he could not afford to work and raise a family, and for that reason he would not live with his wife and left.

Q.3.-- State whether or no they last lived together in this County and State?

A.-- They did last live together in this County and State.

And further this deponent saith not.
